4.1.10 Marital status;
4.1.11 Geo-location data;
4.1.12 Employment details; and
4.1.13 Identity or passport number.

4.2 The supply of personal information by the User to PJC ATTORNEYS is voluntary and not mandatory, except where required for PJC ATTORNEYS to perform customer due diligence, identity verification, screening, recordkeeping or other legal compliance obligations. However, if the User refuses to supply any personal information, certain consequences may naturally flow from such a refusal, such as preventing PJC ATTORNEYS from concluding or performing any contract with the User, or preventing PJC ATTORNEYS from complying with one or more of its obligations in law.

4.3 There are applicable laws which directly requires or authorises PJC ATTORNEYS to collect, verify and obtain from appropriate third-party sources a User's personal information and supporting records; including without limitation FICA.

5. PURPOSE/S FOR COLLECTION AND PROCESSING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

5.1 PJC ATTORNEYS shall only collect and process a User's personal information for a specific, explicitly defined and lawful purpose relating to a function or activity of PJC ATTORNEYS 's business and where a lawful basis under POPIA applies.

5.2 Such purposes may include the following:

5.3 to comply with estate agency regulatory obligations;

5.4 to market properties;

5.5 to communicate with clients and administer commission;

5.6 to receive, communicate and administer offers, and to administer property sales and leases;

5.7 to respond to buyer and tenant enquiries and arrange and conduct property viewings;

5.8 to obtain and administer property mandates;

5.9 to enter into a contract with a User, where processing is necessary for that purpose;

5.10 to perform any obligations under a contract with a User, where processing is necessary for that purpose;

5.11 to comply with a legal obligation, where processing is necessary for that purpose;

5.12 to protect a legitimate interest of a User, where processing is necessary for that purpose (unless the User has specifically objected in writing to all or some of the processing activities on reasonable grounds);

5.13 to pursue its own legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party who it is sharing the information with, where processing is necessary for that purpose (unless the User has specifically objected in writing to all or some of the processing activities on reasonable grounds);

5.14 to process personal information for direct marketing purposes, where the User has consented to receiving any direct marketing material;

5.15 to customise and display content to the User in a way that PJC ATTORNEYS feels may interest the User or be most beneficial to them, where processing is necessary for PJC ATTORNEYS's legitimate interests or the legitimate interests of a third party;

5.16 to send content including, but not limited to products, articles, listings and advertisement content to the User via email or other electronic media, where the User has consented to be contacted by PJC ATTORNEYS with such content;

5.17 to enable the User to voluntarily participate in interactive features, where processing is necessary for that purpose;

5.18 to notify the User about changes to the website or services, where processing is necessary for that purpose.

5.19 If PJC ATTORNEYS intends to process a User's personal information for any other purpose not listed in clause 5.2, it shall ensure that a lawful basis under POPIA applies and, where consent is the appropriate lawful basis, obtain the User's consent to do so.

5.20 PJC ATTORNEYS will not sell a User's personal information to any third party without the prior written consent of the User.

6. COLLECTION DIRECTLY FROM USER

6.1 PJC ATTORNEYS shall, as far as possible, always collect personal information about a User directly from the User, except where PJC ATTORNEYS collects, verifies or obtains from appropriate third-party sources personal information and supporting records necessary to perform FICA customer due diligence, identity verification, screening, recordkeeping or related legal compliance obligations, or in the following circumstances:

6.1.1 Where personal information is collected from a public record, or from another source if the information has already been made public by the User;

6.1.2 where the User has given their written consent to PJC ATTORNEYS to collect their information from another source;

6.1.3 where the collection of a User's personal information from another source will not prejudice any of the User's legitimate interests;

6.1.4 where the collection of personal information from another source is necessary to maintain PJC ATTORNEYS's legitimate interests or those of any third party it intends sharing the information with;

6.1.5 where the collection of personal information directly from the User would prejudice the purpose for the collection;

6.1.6 where the collection of personal information directly from the User is not reasonably practicable in the circumstances.

6.2 If PJC ATTORNEYS collects personal information from a source other than the User, it shall record in writing the details of that source, including the full names and contact details of that source where applicable.

6.3 Personal information may be collected from or supplied by the User in any of the following ways:

6.3.1 during the process of scanning a QR Code or sending a SMS, USSD number or WhatsApp message;

6.3.2 when requesting further services or information from PJC ATTORNEYS;

6.3.3 when contacting PJC ATTORNEYS to report a problem with the website or the services or for any other reason;

6.3.4 when completing any forms on the website.

6.4 The User may visit the website without providing any personal information. However, the website's servers may still collect technical information regarding the use of the website, which is aggregated for analytical purposes, technical maintenance and for improving the content offered on the website. Such information may include details of the User's visit, information about the User's computer, including IP (Internet Protocol) address, operating system and browser type, the User's location, and usage information. An individual User will not be identified from or by this information and PJC ATTORNEYS is entitled to copy, distribute or otherwise use such information without limitation.

7. COOKIES

7.1 "Cookies" are small text files transferred by a webserver to a User's hard drive and thereafter stored on their computer. The types of information a Cookie collects includes a User's username, the date and time of their visits to the website, their browsing history and preferences.

7.2 PJC ATTORNEYS may use Cookies on this website to:

7.2.1 distinguish one User from another on the website;

7.2.2 remember the User's last session when they return to the website;

7.2.3 estimate the website's audience size and usage patterns;

7.2.4 store information about the User's preferences, which allows PJC ATTORNEYS to customize the website and content according to the Users individual preferences; and 7.2.5 speed up searches on the website.

7.3 The provisions of this clause are only applicable to Cookies used by PJC ATTORNEYS. In some instances, third-party service providers may use Cookies on the website. PJC ATTORNEYS cannot and does not control or access Cookies used by third party service providers and takes no responsibility therefor.

7.4 The User has the right and ability to either accept or decline the use of Cookies on their computer's web browser, whether they are logged in as a member, or simply casually visiting the website. However, declining the use of Cookies may limit a User's access to certain features on the website.

8. GENERAL CONDITIONS FOR PROCESSING PERSONAL INFORMATION

8.1 PJC ATTORNEYS shall comply with all laws, contracts or regulations when it processes a User's personal information.

8.2 PJC ATTORNEYS shall not act unreasonably when processing a User's personal information. This means that it will collect and process a User's personal information in a way that the User can reasonably expect and in a way that is fair.

8.3 PJC ATTORNEYS shall respect the User's right to privacy at all times. If there is another way in which it can achieve the same goal without posing any risk of harm to the privacy rights of the User, then it will choose that option.

8.4 Similarly, if PJC ATTORNEYS needs to process personal information but there are less privacy-invasive methods of collecting, using and sharing that information, then it will use those methods.

8.5 PJC ATTORNEYS shall ensure that the personal information that is collected and processed is and remains relevant to the identified purpose/s for such processing, and that such information is and remains adequate, but not excessive, for achieving the identified purpose/s.

8.6 If there are any alternative ways to achieve the identified purpose/s without processing personal information, PJC ATTORNEYS shall not process that personal information.

8.7 PJC ATTORNEYS shall ensure that the processing activities it chooses to apply are proportionate to achieving the identified purpose/s and that no less privacy invasive measures are available to achieve the same purpose/s.

8.8 PJC ATTORNEYS shall ensure that, regardless of the stated purpose/s for processing personal information, the rights and interests of Users will not be unnecessarily prejudiced or infringed, unless it cannot be avoided, and then in such cases, it shall ensure that its own rights and/or interests justify such prejudice or infringement taking place.

8.9 PJC ATTORNEYS shall retain the personal information of Users only for as long as necessary to achieve the purpose for which the User's personal information was collected, unless the User has directed otherwise in writing, PJC ATTORNEYS is required by law to retain the information for a longer period of time, or retention is necessary for contractual administration or the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

8.10 If PJC ATTORNEYS no longer needs to process personal information to achieve the purpose originally specified, it will stop using that information.

9. DISCLOSURE AND SHARING OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

9.1 PJC ATTORNEYS may, while providing any content or services on this website, or for the purposes of concluding or performing any other services or transaction with a User, share certain personal information with third party operators who perform certain processing activities on behalf of PJC ATTORNEYS.

9.2 The information shared and the categories of third party operators with whom it is shared will always be notified to you prior to being shared. Notwithstanding the aforegoing, you consent to us sharing your personal information with the following categories of recipients and operators:

9.2.1 Property sellers, landlords, buyers and tenants; conveyancers; financial institutions; property-service providers; referral partners; our legal and professional advisers; regulatory bodies; and operators.

9.3 PJC ATTORNEYS may also share aggregated information about Users of this website and their usage patterns. PJC ATTORNEYS may also use such aggregated information to help advertisers target specific audiences. Such aggregated information will be de-identified and the User's personal information will not be disclosed.

9.4 Other than as stated in clause 9.1 and 9.3, PJC ATTORNEYS shall not share a User's personal information with any third parties unless it has the User's express consent to do so.

10. USER'S RIGHTS IN RELATION TO THE PROCESSING OF THEIR PERSONAL INFORMATION

10.1 Users shall have the following rights in relation to the processing of their personal information:

10.1.1 to access and correct any personal information held by PJC ATTORNEYS about them;

10.1.2 to object to the processing of their information; and

10.1.3 to lodge a complaint with the Information Regulator.

10.2 Users may make a request in terms of clause 10.1.1 by following the process for making such a request as set out in PJC ATTORNEYS's PAIA manual.

11. FURTHER PROCESSING

11.1 PJC ATTORNEYS shall not process a User's personal information for any purpose not previously specified except in the following circumstances:

11.1.1 where the User has consented to such further processing;

11.1.2 where the further processing is necessary for the exercise of any contractual rights or the fulfillment of any obligations between PJC ATTORNEYS and the User;

11.1.3 where the further processing activities are linked to or compatible with the original purpose;

11.1.4 where the further processing is necessary for the prevention, detection, investigation, prosecution and punishment of an offence;

11.1.5 where the further processing is necessary to enforce any law;

11.1.6 where the further processing is necessary for the conduct of legal proceedings in any court or tribunal that have commenced or are reasonably contemplated;

11.1.7 where the further processing is necessary to prevent or mitigate a serious and imminent threat to the life or health of the User or another individual;

11.1.8 where the further processing is necessary for historical, statistical or research purposes.

11.2 PJC ATTORNEYS shall ensure that if it intends processing personal information for other purposes not previously specified, it shall notify the User of such further purposes and the possible consequences of the intended further processing for the User.

12. ACCURACY, CORRECTNESS AND COMPLETENESS OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

12.1 PJC ATTORNEYS shall take reasonably practicable steps to ensure that the personal information kept by it about Users is complete, accurate, not misleading and is updated when necessary.

12.2 However, if a User is aware of any personal information in PJC ATTORNEYS's custody that is incorrect, inaccurate or which needs to be updated, the User must make a written request to PJC ATTORNEYS's information officer at info@pjcgroup.co.za to update or correct the relevant information.

12.3 If a User has contested the accuracy of any personal information being used by PJC ATTORNEYS, it shall immediately stop using that information until its accuracy has been verified.

12.4 PJC ATTORNEYS reserves its right to only adhere to a request from a User in terms of clause 12.2 if the correction or updating of that information will result in the personal information being correct and accurate.

12.5 Where personal information that has been shared by PJC ATTORNEYS with a third party is subsequently updated or corrected, PJC ATTORNEYS shall ensure that all third parties, with whom that information was shared, receives the updated and/or corrected version of the information as soon as it has been updated and/or corrected.

13. SECURITY SAFEGUARDS

13.1 PJC ATTORNEYS is committed to protecting the personal information in its custody against any loss of, damage to or unauthorised destruction of that information, and to prevent any unauthorised parties from accessing that information.

13.2 PJC ATTORNEYS takes steps to continually identify and document any risks to the personal information it has in its possession or under its control and that appropriate security safeguards are in place against those risks.

13.3 PJC ATTORNEYS shall ensure that in any contracts entered with third party operators who process personal information on PJC ATTORNEYS' behalf, include the following obligations:

13.3.1 the operator shall not process any personal information without PJC ATTORNEYS's knowledge and authority;

13.3.2 the operator shall treat all personal information given to it as confidential and shall not disclose it to any unauthorised third parties;

13.3.3 the operator shall establish and maintain adequate security measures which are the same or offer similar protection over the personal information as that employed by PJC ATTORNEYS;

13.3.4 the operator shall notify PJC ATTORNEYS immediately where there are reasonable grounds to believe that any personal information has been leaked to or accessed by any unauthorised person;

13.3.5 if the operator is situated in another country, it must comply with the data protection laws in that country and be able to provide verification that it is so compliant;

13.3.6 if an operator is legally obliged to disclose any personal information processed by them on PJC ATTORNEYS's behalf to other parties, it must notify PJC ATTORNEYS beforehand to enable PJC ATTORNEYS and/or individual Users to protect their rights if necessary.

13.4 PJC ATTORNEYS shall ensure that all personal information on its systems is properly backed-up and that back-up copies are stored separately from the live files.

14. NOTIFICATION OF BREACH OF SECURITY

14.1 If personal information about a User is inadvertently leaked or PJC ATTORNEYS's security has been unlawfully breached by any unauthorised party, PJC ATTORNEYS shall, as soon as reasonably possible after discovering the compromise, notify the Information Regulator where required by POPIA, identify the relevant Users who may be affected by the security breach, and notify them at their last known email address or contact details or by the quickest means possible.

14.2 PJC ATTORNEYS shall provide sufficient information to the User to allow him or her to take the necessary protective measures against the potential consequences of the compromise or shall advise Users of the steps to be taken by them and the possible consequences that may ensue from the breach for them.

15. DECISIONS BASED ON PERSONAL INFORMATION PROCESSED

15.1 If PJC ATTORNEYS is required to make a decision about a User using any personal information that has been obtained, it shall ensure that a record of such information and the decision made is kept for a reasonable period of time to give the User an opportunity to request access to that record.

15.2 PJC ATTORNEYS shall allow a User a reasonable opportunity to make representations before any decision is made solely based on the personal information processed, if that decision will affect the legal position of the User, or will otherwise adversely affect them in some manner or form.

15.3 PJC ATTORNEYS shall always ensure that the underlying logic behind any decision made pursuant to the automated processing of personal information is sound and that this underlying logic can be communicated to the User to enable them to make representations.

15.4 If PJC ATTORNEYS has made a decisions based on incorrect personal information, it shall immediately revisit that decision as soon as it receive Policy or becomes aware of the error or inaccuracy of that information.

16. LINKED THIRD PARTY WEBSITES

16.1 This website may contain links or references to other websites, including those of advertisers ("third party websites") which are not under PJC ATTORNEYS's control.

16.2 The provisions of this Privacy Policy are not applicable to third party websites and PJC ATTORNEYS shall not responsible for the information processing practices and/or privacy policies of those third party websites, or the cookies that those websites may use.

17. DIRECT MARKETING

17.1 PJC ATTORNEYS may send electronic communications to the User for the purpose of marketing similar products or services offered by PJC ATTORNEYS, where permitted by POPIA and with the User's consent where required by POPIA.

17.2 The User may object, free of charge, and without unnecessary formality, to the use of their details either when the information was first collected from them or when each subsequent electronic communication is sent to them by PJC ATTORNEYS.

17.3 The User can opt out of receiving further marketing communications by unticking certain boxes on the forms used on the website to collect their personal information, or by contacting PJC ATTORNEYS at info@pjcgroup.co.za.

18. CHILDREN'S PERSONAL INFORMATION

PJC ATTORNEYS shall not process any personal information relating to a person under the age of 18 years unless it has obtained consent from that person's parent or legal guardian. If this website is being accessed by the parent or guardian of a child under the age of 18 years, and personal information pertaining to that child is being provided by the parent or guardian, then they hereby expressly consent to PJC ATTORNEYS processing such information according to the further provisions of this Privacy Policy.

19. CROSS BORDER TRANSFERS OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

19.1 PJC ATTORNEYS may transfer personal information outside South Africa only where the transfer meets the requirements of POPIA, including where:

19.1.1 the recipient is subject to a law, binding corporate rules or a binding agreement that provides an adequate level of protection for personal information; or

19.1.2 the transfer is necessary for the conclusion or performance of a contract with a third party which is for the benefit of or in the interest of the User;

19.1.3 the transfer is otherwise for the benefit of the User; or

19.1.4 the User has consented to the transfer of their information.

19.2 PJC ATTORNEYS will ensure that any transfer of personal information from South Africa to a third party in a foreign country complies with POPIA.

20. RETENTION OF INFORMATION

20.1 PJC ATTORNEYS will keep a record of any personal information collected for no longer than is necessary to achieve the specific purpose for which it collected such information in the first place unless:

20.1.1 It is required by law to keep a record of such information for a longer period of time; or

20.1.2 It needs to keep a record of such information for contractual administration or the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims; or

20.1.3 It has a contractual obligation to keep a record of such information; or 20.2 PJC ATTORNEYS may, if it has de-identified personal information, keep such information for historical, statistical or research purposes. PJC ATTORNEYS shall ensure that appropriate safeguards are in place to prevent those records from being used for any other purposes, or against the information being re-identified.

21. RETURNING, DESTROYING OR DELETING PERSONAL INFORMATION

21.1 Where PJC ATTORNEYS is no longer authorised to retain a record of any personal information, and subject to applicable legal, regulatory, contractual, and legal-claim retention requirements, it shall, at the User's written request, either:

21.1.1 ensure that the information is permanently destroyed or deleted as soon as reasonably practicable; or

21.1.2 return the information to the User or transfer it to a third party, if requested by the User in writing to do so.

22. CONSENT

22.1 The User may consent to the processing of their information, including special personal only where authorised by POPIA and necessary for a stated estate agency, legal compliance, or other lawful purpose, information where consent is the appropriate lawful basis under POPIA and in terms of the provisions of this Privacy Policy.

22.2 Where the User gives consent, the User acknowledges and agrees that such consent has been given voluntarily after the User has read and understood the provisions of this Privacy Policy regarding the following:

22.2.1 the types of personal information to be processed, including specifically special personal information;

22.2.2 the specific processing activities to be undertaken;

22.2.3 the specific purpose/s for such processing; and

22.2.4 the possible consequences for the User that may arise from such processing.

22.3 Should a User wish to withdraw any consent previously given by the User, they must notify PJC ATTORNEYS's information officer in writing.

23. LODGING AN OBJECTION

23.1 A User may, on reasonable grounds, object to the processing of their personal information at any time after that processing has started.

23.2 If a User wishes to object to the processing of their personal information, they must send written Policy of their objection to PJC ATTORNEYS's information officer, together with their reasons for doing so.

24. CHOICE OF LAW

This Privacy Policy shall be governed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Republic of South Africa.

25. AMENDMENT OF THIS PRIVACY POLICY

25.1 PJC ATTORNEYS reserves the right to change, update, add, remove and/or amend any of the provisions of this Privacy Policy from time to time. Such changes, updates, additions, removals or amendments will become effective from the date of their publication on this website.

25.2 It is the User's obligation to periodically check the provisions of this Privacy Policy for any such changes, updates, additions, removals or amendments.

25.3 The User's continued use of this website following any changes, updates, additions, removals or amendments to this Privacy Policy will be considered Policy of the User's acceptance to abide by and be bound by this Privacy Policy, as amended.
